UNDERGRADS

Senior Class Prophecy

I guess we all remember the Senior Class of 1955 and how eager they were to begin a job of their own. Here is the latest information on the success of that class.

You all know Peg Brashares and how she hated Physics Class. Now she is a Physics teacher in Marion, Ohio.

And remember Shirlee Zeigler? She now has her own beauty shop called "Curly Shirlee's Beauty Shop."

Charlotte Abel's dreams have finally come true. She and Dick have twins, Dicky and Ricky, and live in North Carolina.

Remember Thomas Smith and how he liked the A & P Store? He now owns one out in Maine.

I hear Donna Beis is living a happy life since she became the wife of a great Chevrolet dealer in Scutch.

And remember how Edna Bishop loved to dance? She is now a star with the Clayton Deckers Red Shirts. Guess she really likes being a star.

I guess Eva Burks is doing pretty well for herself. She won the title "Miss America of 1955."

Remember how Max Barber always liked girls? Now he has plenty of them. He is an agent for the top models in New York. I hear they keep him pretty busy.

I hear James Coldiron is now a great singer on television. He must have got over his bashfulness. He is quite a magician.

Remember how Shelby Dillon liked to study? She is now enrolled at Ohio Northern University studying to become a veterinarian.

And Helen Serin? She is having life pretty easy since she moved to West Virginia. She is now working in George's pie factory.

Ruth Bare must be quite something. She appeared on the "Big Top" several times as tight rope walker.

And you'll really be surprised to know what Virginia Brown does. She owns an orphanage in Toledo. Does she like kids!

Remember that cute kid, Bob Seifert? I guess he is a big used-car dealer in Columbus. By the way, he sells mostly Cadillacs.

Ronald Urban must have it pretty nice too, being supervisor at the G. E. in Tiffin. I heard he's going to bring his twelve kids into the business.

Remember Diane Ludwig and how she loved music? She now has her own television program called "An Hour of Music."

Paul Burgderfer now owns his own dairy because he's so crazy about Jerseys. He and his wife are really making money.

I guess Ruth Reinhart likes Carey. She's the boss at the National Lime and Stone where her husband works.

Neil Zeigler is doing fine out West. He now owns a ranch and some 2500 horses. Quite successful, huh?

Know that Beulah Caudill and how she always hated boys. She now has an all-boy orchestra, and is doing fine.

Another kid in that class was Carolee Traxler. She is now a secretary at the Bendix Company in Detroit.

I guess Della Beis is doing all right after ten years. She is really rolling in the dough since she took over the National Bank in Tiffin.

I bet you'll really be surprised to know what David Rank is doing. He now owns the Great Hotel Phoenix in Arizona.

The last of that odd class was June Stone. She thought she'd take up the restaurant business in Carey. For the best hamburgers, drop in at "June's Eat 'Em Up Restaurant".

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1955, will to the unsophisticated Junior Class our debts, payable to the Juniors; and also our favorite loafing place, the North Room.

To the Sophomore Class we will our gift of gab.

We will the Freshman Class all the glowing examples of the dignified Seniors of 1955.

To the town of McCutchenville, we will the memory of the class of 1955.
